

This weekend, the Journal Sentinel is including paper wrap-around flags with all newspapers, literally wrapping themselves in the flag. But look at the actual flag flying in front of their printing and business operation in West Milwaukee. Instead of patting themselves on the back by printing paper flags, maybe they ought to spend the money on a real flag that isn't in tatters.

Mark Belling

June 30

