

Wendell Smith, the well known principal of Longfellow School on Milwaukee's near south side is facing felony charges for psychological damage to a child and fourth degree sexual assault of a child. The story is not being reported by other Milwaukee media outlets. Smith has been on leave from his MPS position for several weeks. His wife filed for divorce around the same time his leave began.

Mark Belling

April 23