

Mark, THANKS MUCH for your exacta pick on the Belmont! I did the $5 box you recommended and netted over $810 (the $2 exacta paid $348 and I bet $5 on it as you suggested on your website). Way to go!!!

Regards,
Tom T.

Hi Mark,
Just wanted to thank you for sharing your Belmont picks. Saturday was my first horse race and I made a fair amount of money thanks to you. It's truly a great sport. I've been listening to you since I was in high school in Fond du Lac and continue to stream your show from NYC. Take care,
Will

Thanks Mark! I boxed the 5 horses you hi lighted for the trifecta. Won $3390.00.

Hi Mark,

I want to thank you for your racing tip that won me $870 via the $5 Exacta on Sunday. I know incredibly little about horse racing and realized 20 minutes before the start that it would be way more interesting to watch if I bet something on it, so I went online and quickly found Twin Spires web site and called to set up an account literally down to 5 minutes before the race. I remembered you saying that you put your picks up on your website and so I read through as much as I could while on hold.

Once I got it set up they transferred me over to the betting line and not knowing how to burn the $100 I just put in, I looked at your picks and thought I could get my brain around the Exacta bet for $60 and would eat up the other $40 on a few horse-to-win bets, so I did that. Then I watched the race and realized that my individual win bets didn't come in, but your Exacta did. I quickly started trying to find payout results and figured maybe I won just a few bucks or at least cut some loss, but I couldn't find anything online so I called Twin Spires back and found that I won a pretty impressive $870 for a guy who was bored on the couch and didn't know what the hell he was doing.

But.....then I looked at your other bets and realized that I'm a moron. It looks like I would have won the Trifecta and Superfecta for many thousands of dollars if I had the brains to bet those instead of my other individual win bets. Now I went from elated about my $870 to depressed about my loss of I-don't-know-how-many thousand dollars. Wow, total bumner.

In the end I realize that it's a miracle I won anything and hindsight is 20/20, but I should have followed your picks to the letter. I still don't fully understand what the payout would have been. Lesson learned. Thanks. I owe you a beer but I would have owed you an expensive meal or new television had I followed your other picks 😊

Best,

David

Mark,

Just wanted to say thank you for posting your picks for this past weekends Belmont Stakes. Like you said if you wanted to win big leave California Chrome off your tickets and I did. I won the $1 trifecta.

Thanks again

Matt

Hello,

I'm sure you are receiving many emails of thanks today for your picks on the Belmont Stakes. I'm not a die hard racing fan but have followed the Triple Crown races since I was 9 or 10 years old. I like to read up and make picks for the races, but I never actually place bets on them. I've always read your breakdown of the races as part of my analysis and for some reason this year I really felt like you were on to something. It seems to me that anytime a horse is going for the Triple Crown nowadays it's a great chance to make a score. You can basically eliminate the favorite and it's lousy odds and look for some fresh horses with long/longish odds.

I decided to go to Potawatomi and place the exact wagers that you had in your picks (I also bet $2 win, 4$ place, and $5 to show on the #6 horse and I put $2 on the nose of California Chrome just to have the ticket as a keepsake in case he won).

Well, you know how it went down. I cashed two tickets for $883.20, which after my $142.60 investment. Left with a cool $740.60 profit!

Thanks so much for you breakdown of the races and the suggested wagers. I had a blast making the bets, and a even bigger blast cashing in the tickets!!

David

Hi Mark,
Congratulations on your Belmont picks, and thanks for the handsome $870 return on the exacta ticket. It was funny the lady at Potawatomi finished punching in my bet before I finished reading it off. You must have a lot of people playing your picks.

Thanks again
Bryan

Took your top five and boxed them in a trifecta.....$3,400 winner.

Thanks for putting up your picks and your analysis.

Luke

Thanks Mark!!! I have played your picks for as long as I can remember.

I invested 308. About what I always do with all your posted picks. Here is what I did.

$5 xta box 1,8,9,11

$1 tri 1,8,9,11/1,2,8,9,11/1,2,6,8,9,11

.10 super 1,2,8,9,11/1,2,8,9,11/1,2,6,8,9,11/all

$20 wps 9

$20 wps 1

Total cashed: 5346.15
-80.00 tip
-308.00 investment
4958.15 winner

All 5 horses is really something. I'm sure we will hear about it for 20 minutes on Monday.

Thank you so much for the fun each time. Win or lose!

Reformed liberal don't you know.

Mark I want to THANK YOU for the tip on the Belmont race. I did a 10-cent superfecta box with your five top picks for $12.00. I collected $380.00 with the 2 in 4th place and another $573.35 with the 9 in 4th place, for a total of $953.35.

My wife would also like thank you for the new set of dishes she will be buying tomorrow with the winnings

P.S. I would also like to thank you for the new power washer I'm getting tomorrow, but she doesn't know that yet.

Lee

Mark,

Thanks for posting the picks.

I bet the Trifecta and the Exacta just as you showed on the web.

I cleared almost $800 when the exacta hit.

So thanks for that and please keep posting the picks.

You're very good at this!

Todd

Even though I don't usually agree with your politics I do agree that you know horses. Thank you for making me a "tidy sum" Saturday. My husband tells me I have to vote Republican as a thank you (he generally agrees with your views). Teri

Mark,

Thanks for the picks. I bet $ 220 and won $ 1102. And my friend hit the tri based on your picks. Here's what he wrote:

"Sweet, I would not have used commissioner without Belling's push. Hit tri in both r10 & r11"

Thanks Mark.
