

I have learned that Mequon Thiensville Schools Superintendent Demond Means is being named overseer of the Milwaukee Public Schools Opportunities Schools and Partnership Program. The state legislature recently passed a law giving County Executive Chris Abele oversight over certain public schools that will be operated in conjunction with Milwaukee Public Schools. Means is being named by Abele to the position of commissioner. Means intends to stay on as superintendent in Mequon and envisions the Milwaukee post as part time.

Mark Belling
November 11, 2015