

EXCLUSIVE: Ron Johnson To Declare Senate Reelection Candidacy Imminently

By Mark Belling, WISN-AM

This isn't exactly a surprise but Wisconsin Republican Senator Ron Johnson is running for reelection and will formally announce it very soon.

Johnson has been coy about his plans for a year but has always acted like he was running. No other Republican has even been trying to prepare a campaign. Johnson is the number one target in America of Democrats seeking to flip a GOP seat and Johnson will have to explain why he is abandoning his 2010 pledge to serve no more than two terms.

But growing indications that 2022 will be a huge year for the GOP and the weakness of the potential Democrat challengers (Mandela Barnes, Alex Lasry, Sarah Godlweski and Tom Nelson) make him a clear favorite to win.

Johnson's announcement will come very soon.
