Of course parents need to have a say in their kids' education and their classrooms! I'm a parent, and I have a say, as should every parent. I shouldn't have been cavalier or glib—that wasn't my intention, and I apologize. Carry on!

Since I have new folks paying attention, now is a GREAT time to remind those concerned about what is happening in public schools that there is a primary election on February 15 and a general on April 5 for Appleton School Board!

That's right! Parents (and others)- you can HAVE A SAY in your child's education by voting in your local school board races. Funny how that part seems to be have forgotten by the haters.

I deleted my Tweet since it was lacking in nuance and easily misinterpreted. I wouldn't want anyone to think that parents do not have a role in their child's public education-I sure did. I encourage all parents to engage in voting for school board, join PTO and meet with teachers

To clarify, My point is we should be fully funding our public schools and that diverting funds away from our public schools only makes it harder for parents to have the relationships we deserve our kids' teachers and their schools
