

EXCLUSIVE: Teacher Barred From Omro School Property For Inappropriate Contacts With Student Now Working In Campbellsport
By Mark Belling, WISN-AM

A middle school English teacher who was forced to resign from his position in the Omro School District and was banned from school property in Omro has been hired and is currently working in a similar job in Campbellsport.

The Wisconsin Court of Appeals in September upheld an order barring Neil Klosterman from Omro school property after district officials raised concerns about repeated instances of inappropriate close physical contact between Klosterman and middle school students. Klosterman was a middle school English teacher at Omro.

The appeals court opinion quoted several instances in which Klosterman had close contact including one in which witnesses said he appeared to be kissing a student. Klosterman and the students involved denied that anything sexually inappropriate was going on.

Despite the Omro history, Klosterman was hired as a middle school teacher in Campbellsport as of the beginning of the current school year.

Klosterman has not been criminally charged with anything.

Campbellsport Superintendent Thomas Wissink has so far not responded to my inquiries.

Campbellsport is about ten miles north of West Bend. Omro is about 15 miles west of Oshkosh
