

Right Before The Alleged Bribe, Joe Biden Was So Broke He Wanted To Sell His Delaware House. Obama Told Him Not To. Guess How Many Houses Joe Has Now?
By Mark Belling, WISN-AM

A 2016 CNN report stated that then-Vice President Joe Biden was so concerned about paying his bills and those of his sick son Beau that he considered selling his family home in Wilmington, Delaware. The story, which seemed innocuous at the time, states President Barack Obama urged him not to.

An FBI whistleblower has reportedly alleged that the Bidens were paid a $5 million bribe shortly after that. Another year later, Biden bought a second home. Now he has three. Biden not only never sold the first home but was able to buy two more in the period after he left the Vice Presidency. The timeline of these purchases is laid out in a January 2021 puff piece on Biden by Newsweek:

In other words, Joe Biden went in early 2016 to worrying he couldn't afford one home to suddenly keeping that home and buying two more. How did Joe fall into the kind of money to do that?????????????????
